

Name

What is the title of your sculpture?

Where is the ideal location of your sculpture?

How big is your sculpture in real life in relation to a person?

If this were to be actually built for outside what material would it be constructed from?

What feeling does your sculpture convey? How do the shapes and forms you selected contribute to that feeling?

What do you like best about your sculpture?

What would you do differently next time?