

Sketch 15 Thankful

Sketch something little you are thankful for. I know you are all thankful for your families, home, food, etc. I want you to think of something little that bring you joy everyday and do a detailed drawing of it. Make sure you are looking closely while you draw-not from memory. Add shading or color and think about your overall composition.